

. . . Just Between Us . . .

by SELIG BROOKS

Interschool cooperation suffered another blow at the hands of one of our colleagues on the staff of the "Racquette." He reported that he neglected writing of hockey in his column because he "went to a couple of games early in the season and was surrounded by about 100 screaming children." Cooperation and good feeling is steadily becoming more widespread on the campuses. Writing of that type will only serve to undermine the progress and put us back to where we were about a year ago . . . With 45 percent of the S.U.T.C.P. frosh on probation, it seems likely that more stringent rules will be put into effect for next year's incoming freshmen. These may include 8:00 hours which were abolished only recently. It is interesting to note that Potsdam's rules are among the easiest in the country for girl's colleges . . . Along that line, the Potsdam seniors have been given overnights for their senior ball . . . WNTC's new board under Charles Winter's direction for the coming year took over this week. There's a possibility that by next year at this time WNTC will be broadcasting from

(See Brooks, page 5)

WNTC

(Continued from page 1)
C.C.T.-S.L.U. game at Canton will be broadcast direct from Appleton Arena, Tuesday night, March 2. Ron Willman has announced that a new program schedule will go into effect March 1. All those interested in working on the station can do so by contacting Gerry Brill.
The incoming board expressed appreciation for the fine work done by the retiring members. The retiring members will remain as advisory personnel until station operations cease late in May